

LACA Music Foundation Corporation

Major accomplishments and initiatives

January 2010

Sponsored the "Ode to the Earth" concert at the Arcadia Presbyterian Church

November 2009

Participated in the "Love Taiwan" Charity Concert

August 2009

Sponsored the 88 Taiwan Flood Disaster Charity Concert

October 2008

Presented the "Songs of Melody" at the Baldwin Park Performance Center

April 2008

Presented the "10th Anniversary Concert" by San Gabriel Valley Children's Chorus and the Southern California Senior Chorus

September 2007

Sponsored the Los Angeles Concert Tour for the Czech Children Lark Choir from Zidlochovice, Czech Republic. 3 concerts were given,

- September 22, 2007 at Temple City Seventh Day Adventist Church
- September 29, 2007 at Rowland Heights Community Christian Church
- September 30, 2007 at First Church of Nazarene of Pasadena

July 2007

Presented Haydn's Creation by the 100 community combined choir members with the Dalian University Jin-Chen Youth Symphony from Dalian, China at the First Church of Nazarene of Pasadena

November 2006

Presented the "Mozart's Choral Works" as the tribute to Mozart's 250th anniversary at the Ambassador Auditorium at Pasadena

September 2006

Participated in the "Europe and its Songs" competition, an international folksong festival in Barcelona Spain, and awarded with the Silver medal

December 2005

2 concerts to present Handel's "Messiah" by the Los Angeles Chinese Chorale, Los Angeles Chinese Christian Chorale, and the Southern California Children Chorus

August 2005

- Invited to participate in the premiere concert for the "Chinese new composition from Taiwan and America"
- Invited by the National Taiwan University Alumni Chorus to participate in their concert tour in Los Angeles

December 2004

The 45th Annual Los Angeles County Holiday Celebration. Took part in this celebration to share the "Song of Praise" in the 'Maiden of Malan'

November 2004

"From Primitive to Contemporary" concert by the Los Angeles Chinese Chorale

October 2004

Recorded and published the CD "At Dawn We'll Meet"

December 2003

Joint concert of the Los Angeles Chinese Chorale, Los Angeles Chinese Christian Chorale, Southern California Senior Chorus, East Valley Children's Chorus, and the Southern California Youth Chorus to present Vivaldi's "Gloria" and Britten's "A Ceremony of Carols"

11/15/2003

This workshop employed the famed choral conductor Dr. William Belan, and the Alexander technique instructor Ms. Lyn Charlson to offer the accurate techniques.

07/26/2003

A group of 60 gifted youths and children was invited from Taipei to Los Angeles. An unforgettable concert was given at El Monte. Traditional eastern music as well as some newly composed pieces were presented

05/15/2002

Global Overseas Chinese Choral Competition - President Cup in Taipei, Taiwan. Our chorus was selected to represent all Chinese choral groups in North America to participate in this competition in Taipei. Received the silver award among 20 global teams.

04/26/2002

A very well received performance presenting the Asian and Pacific Rim Melodies. Songs from Korean, Vietnam, Taiwan, China (Mongolia, Hu-Bei, Yun-Nan, Xin-Jiang), Phillipines, Russian, Malaysia, Hebrew, Maori (New Zealand), and Tasmanian (Australian) were introduced. A CD was published with the contents of this concert

10/06/2001

Participated in the 9-1-1 Memorial Concert. A new composition 'At Dawn We'll Meet' written by our music director Mr. Samuel Lin was premiered dedicating to those who were affected in the tragedy. All contributions were donated to help out the victims' families

06/23/2001 thru 06/27/2001

Innsbruck (Austria) International Choral Festival Joined other 10 selected choruses in this spectacular 4-day festival culminating in a performance of the Mozart's Requiem, with the famous Salzburg Orchestra and outstanding European soloists under the direction of Alan Heatherington, and a stirring selection of choral works conducted by Weston Noble. The conductors paid attribute to us as the 'Most Prepared' group.

06/10/2001

Pre-tour Concert of the Innsbruck International Choral Festival. Presented the Mozart's Requiem; choral works by John David, James Erb, Joseph Martin, Randall Stroope, and Andre Thomas. Selections of the modern Chinese composer Chu, Wen-Chung were introduced as one of the highlights

12/24/2000

Took part in the 41st Annual Los Angeles County Holiday Celebration to share the 'Festive Rejoice' music describing the scenes of happy gathering from several indigenous tribes in Taiwan including Yami, Sai Siat, Puyuma, Tsou, Tayal, Taruko, Rukai, Paiwan, Thao, Ami, Truku & Bunun

12/09/2000

Christmas Concert Featuring the Opera 'Amahl, and the Night Visitors' by Gian-Carlo Menotti Joint concert with the Los Angeles Chinese Chorale, Southern California Youth Chorus, and the Southern California Senior Chorus

06/09/2000 thru 06/18/2000

On Gold Mountain – Commissioned by Los Angeles Opera Company. This is the inaugural production in Los Angeles Opera's Voices of California Community Opera Program. Voices of California operas are original commissions created to tell the untold stories of Californians and to combine in performance professional operas artists with community participants. Our group was auditioned to obtain this opportunity to voluntarily participate. Extensive commitment serving the community was demonstrated. We participated in 5 performances at the Japan America Theatre (Los Angeles)

